

COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS, UNITED STATES HOUSE
OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT
OF THE TREASURY, et al.
Defendants,

DONALD J. TRUMP, et al.,
Defendant-Intervenors.

1. Pursuant to Local Rule 7(e), Defendants United States Department of the Treasury, et al., and Defendant-Intervenors Donald J. Trump, et al., respectfully move for leave to file a consolidated Memorandum of Law in support of their Motion to Dismiss at a length of up to 60 pages.

3. Plaintiff's Complaint asserts eight purported causes of action and, as this Court previously observed, "[t]his case presents novel and complex questions about the privileges and authority of all three branches of the federal government." ECF No. 38 at 3. When Plaintiff previously sought leave to exceed the page limit for its Memorandum of Law in Support of its Motion for Summary Judgment (a page-extension motion this Court granted, though the Court has since denied the summary judgment motion without prejudice as premature), Plaintiff similarly noted that the legal issues here “are numerous, important, and complex.” ECF No. 28 at 1.

4. Defendants are working diligently to present their legal arguments to the Court as concisely as possible. But in light of the number and importance of the issues raised by their forthcoming Motion to Dismiss—and the intent of Defendants and Defendant-Intervenors to file a consolidated brief—Defendants and Defendant-Intervenors believe that a 15-page extension will enable them to best assist the Court in resolving the significant questions presented. Even if such an extension is granted, the total number of pages filed by Defendants and Defendant-Intervenors will be 30 pages less than the 90 total pages the two parties are allocated under the Local Rules.

5. Pursuant to Local Rule 7(m), counsel for Defendants conferred with counsel for Plaintiff, who consents to this motion.

Dated: September 4, 2019

Respectfully submitted,
